

Office Before	Office After

<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Desk was in the Knowledge sector of the office in an unsupportive position (back to the door) similar to Example D. 2. Office and desk were cluttered. Many paper piles were sighted. 3. Desk was L-shaped, which is fine. However it always had a lot of work on it. 4. White walls contributed to a cold, stark feeling in the office. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Desk was relocated to the Wealth sector and was placed facing out to view the wide area of the office. 2. Papers were stored, and a clear desk was used for active work. 3. The L-shaped desk was separated to create an executive presence. The computer moved to the other part of the desk, the main work area. 4. The walls were painted green, a beautiful, supportive color for prosperity and growth.
